

Qardio: status of the companies and the app

Prepared for App Review by Uladzimir Kazakevich (Kuardio), contact@kuardio.com · 8 October 2026

Kuardio is a free app that lets owners of the QardioArm blood pressure monitor keep using it. App Review asked for authorization from Qardio (guideline 5.2.1). We can't obtain it: the Qardio companies we could find in public registers are bankrupt or dissolved, and the official Qardio app has been removed from the App Store. We have not been able to identify anyone who could grant authorization. The records are attached as captured today.
